

Help Keep Ozone Away, COMMIT TO ONE DAY!

By making easy changes to daily activities at least one day a week, such as reducing driving, taking the light rail or bus, refueling after dark, or riding a bike to work, Maricopa County residents and businesses can have a great impact on reducing ozone concentrations and helping keep our air clean.

